Graham explains history of marker

Dear Editor:

In response to Naomi Trigg Schoppe's letter of May 16, 1991, concerning replacing the grave marker for Nancy Overstreet, who was the first person buried in the White House Cemetery, I submit the following information in order to set the record straight.

In 1942, my father John Henry Graham (Jan. 14-1884-March 1, 1960) made the marker that is now on the grave. My mother Mrs. A.M. Graham, age 87, of Waynesboro and I helped him make the cement marker and the base it sits on.

He decorated it with chips of porcelain, which my mother broke into small pieces. She and I handed him the letters as he printed the inscription. There was no marker on the grave at the time, and he obtained the information from his own records.

It reads: "Nancy, daughter of Bowie and Mary Overstreet, Jan. 6, 1880-May 19, 1886. The first to be buried in this cemetery. Sponsored by W.R. Graham and W.S. Trigg."

My grandfather William R. Graham (March 28, 1851-Feb. 19, 1943) and W.S. Trigg were lifelong friends. Mr. Trigg and seven of his sons, and Mr. Graham and his four sons are buried there, as are several of their descendants. According to the information passed down to me, the first church built on the property was constructed from logs donated by Mr. Trigg and cut at my grandfather's sawmill. It was built by Graham's sons Elias (1875-1901), Thomas (1872-1906) and Sam (1879-1902). My father John Henry helped his older brother by handing them tools and nails and by bringing them water. The church was whitewashed with lime and became known as the White House Church.

W.R. Graham's mother was Cherry Overstreet, however, no connection to Nancy Overstreet has yet been established. My primary interest is in preserving the history of the cemetery. The marker is in poor condition. The writing is barely legible, the stone is split, the porcelain Madonna figurine is broken and the base is crumbling. It needs to be replaced with a lasting monument.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this effort may contact Mrs. N.L. Shoemaker.

Respectfully,
Caleb F. Graham

I DO NOT GUARANTEE THE ACCURACY OF ALL DATES AND NAMES, BUT THE SEARCH INDICATES THAT MOST DATA IS THE BEST POSSIBLE. HELP IS NEEDED IN MAKING THIS A MORE COMPLETE FAMILY DOCUMENT. I WOULD ALWAYS APPRECIATE A FEW MINUTES OF ANYONE'S TIME IN COMPILING MORE CURRENT DATA ON THESE FAMILIES. OUR HERITAGE IS TOO IMPORTANT TO FORGET !

I WILL CONTINUE TO SEARCH AS TIME PERMITS , AND I HOPE THAT YOU ENJOY THE CONTENTS AS OF MAY 9,

FIRST GENERATION

1. Henry OVERSTREET. The family group here is my attempt to visualize the Wayne County, Mississippi Overstreet Family that moved there prior to 1820 from Georgia. I am making an assumption of the four children of a Henry Overstreet who lived in Georgia before 1800. Two States seem to have been significant when studying the Overstreets of Wayne County in 1820 and they are North Carolina and Georgia. It is entirely possible that we are looking at two distinct groups of Overstreets. I must note that in 1850 a Daniel Overstreet (born abt 1814) and a James Overstreet (born abt 1807) were living in Newton County, Mississippi and Daniel was listed as being born in South Carolina and Daniel born in Georgia. Were these men related to the Wayne County groups? Naming patterns among Overstreets always seemed to follow a pattern of naming a male after a father or grandfather and the given names of John, James, Daniel, Henry, and William were common. This is not unique to so many other families.

My desire with this project is to find more evidence that will prove my conclusion. Anyone having greater knowledge is encouraged to contact me.

He married.

He had the following children:

- +2 i. Braswell OVERSTREET
- +3 ii. JOHN OVERSTREET
- 4 iii. Daniel OVERSTREET
- 5 iv. Sarah OVERSTREET
- 6 v. Charity OVERSTREET

SECOND GENERATION

2. Braswell OVERSTREET was born about 1775. A Braswell Overstreet appears on documents in Georgia on September 1794 where a Braswell was a witness to a deed of John Overstreet married to a Catherine for land originally granted to a Henry Overstreet on August 6, 1765. Other witness on this transaction were Daniel Overstreet, Sarah Canman and Charity Mulkey. It must be assumed that the two women were Overstreets and Daniel a brother. This Braswell could have been the same Braswell listed above, and his age would have been approximately 20 years. The John Overstreet could have been his brother, who I think may be the same John who is living with Stephen Overstreet in Clarke County, MS on the 1850 census. This John is approximately 74 years of age being born about 1776. John and Stephen most likely lived to be criticised if I am in error.

He married SARAH BOWIE. SARAH BOWIE was born about 1779.
Montgomery County, GA

They had the following children:

 36. I found this John Overstreet living in Greene County, Mississippi on the 1850 Census and the household listed a Thomas Overstreet and an elderly lady named Sarah who appears to be the mother of the two men. Her age corresponds with the age of the Sarah who would have been the wife of Braswell #1 who started this tree. Therefore, I have listed them as brothers with their mother. Thomas would later die in the civil war.

THE OVERSTREET FAMILY

WRITTEN BY ALBERTA OVERSTREET POWERS
1950

In the early days of Mississippi's statehood, John Overstreet and family from North Carolina came there to reside. We do not know the exact date of their arrival but feel sure that we can safely say it was about 1820 or 1821. We have arrived at this conclusion upon the single fact that on October 4, 1821 a baby girl, Nancy, was born in Mississippi to John Husband and his wife Elizabeth Overstreet Husband. This Elizabeth Husband was John Overstreet's sister. Now whether this John Husband and wife came to Mississippi ahead of Elizabeth's brothers and sisters who were named, John, Henry, Will, Jane and Mary, we do not know, but it is presumed that all came together for travel was much safer for a large group of people than a small group. There were many hardships to be endured and Indians to be encountered so there was safety in numbers.

John Overstreet came into Mississippi with seventy-five slaves so the story goes. These may have been all his or he and his brothers and sisters may have owned them together; perhaps inherited them from their father.

"No, it was not the proverbial one hundred slaves as so many families love to claim", said Aunt Fannie McNeill, daughter of Anderson Overstreet and granddaughter of John Overstreet, "I never did hear that he had a hundred, but always I heard that he owned seventy-five slaves".

John Overstreet's wife was a Miss Husband. She either was a sister of John Husband who married Elizabeth Overstreet, or a close kinsman. John Overstreet had three children, Oliver, Coleman, and Madison and then on January 17, 1825, a fourth son was born in Wayne County, Mississippi, and they named him Anderson P. Overstreet. The first three sons may have been born in Mississippi also, or North Carolina, but it is presumed that at least two out of the three were born in Mississippi and that John Overstreet came into Mississippi about 1820 with John Husband. It was said they tarried awhile in Alabama on the way to Mississippi. There were reasons for leaving North Carolina and coming to Mississippi. First, the large tracts of land that could be bought cheap in the new State of Mississippi. This new land was supposed to be very rich and many acres in North and South Carolina and Virginia were exhausted so settlers from those states began to pour into the new southern states and buy up land for only a few dollars an acre. It sold anywhere from Fifty Cents to Five and Seven Dollars an acre, and was very readily bought and quickly settled. There was lots of poor land in Wayne County, Mississippi, but there was also some good. John Overstreet bought a large tract in Kemper County, but was in Wayne County first where his fourth son, Anderson, was born in 1825.

In 1806 a William Overstreet married Polly, daughter of Governor Sevier of Tennessee. They had a son George, Senior, who left a large family in Tennessee, but this is not close kin, if any, to the Mississippi Overstreets.

Henry (First Generation) brother of John Overstreet, went to Neshoba County Mississippi and settled over there. He had a son, Doctor Will Overstreet, this Doctor Will Overstreet, son of Henry, had a daughter Mae, who married a Mr. Houston.

William Overstreet, another brother of John Overstreet, but not the William who went to Tennessee, for we do not know of any kinship with the one in Tennessee; was only twelve years old when he came to Mississippi.

John Overstreet, my great grandfather and one of the three Overstreet brothers to leave North Carolina with his wife and children for Mississippi, tarried for awhile in Wayne County Mississippi where a son was born to his wife who was a Miss Husband, and this son was named Anderson P. Overstreet, who became my grandfather. This was January 17, 1825. Anderson died September 1901. So, John's arrival in Mississippi was between 1820 and 1825.

Then the family moved a little later to Kemper County, Mississippi, near Dekalb, and bought lots of land. While he was still a baby, Anderson Overstreet's mother died, and he was literally turned over to a black Mammy nurse and to the care of older brothers and sisters, who were no doubt too young to do anything for him, so black Mammy bossed the job. Great grandfather John Overstreet had seventy-five slaves. "No", said my aunt Fannie Overstreet McNeille one day, "I never did hear that he had a hundred slaves as so many families love to claim, but there were seventy-five, because all the old folks agreed on that point." This had often been told to Aunt Fannie, daughter of Anderson Overstreet.

Great grandfather had also three sisters who came with him to Mississippi, Mary, Jane and Elizabeth. They were no doubt married in North Carolina except Jane, who married Rev. Wiley McNeill ^{correct spelling} in Mississippi. Mary married Mr. Graham and Elizabeth (Betsy) married John Husband. Jane must have married about 1832 for her oldest son was born in 1833. Her youngest sons and daughters were not a great deal older than her nephew's children. I refer to the children of Anderson Overstreet, Jane's nephew, son of John Overstreet. One of this Jane Overstreet McNeille's and Wiley McNeille's sons was Aiden McNeille, born 1833. He was Lt. Col. in the Civil War, 8th Mississippi Regiment. He was many years older than his youngest brother Walter, who was born October 15, 1859, and who later married his cousin Fannie Overstreet. Two of Jane's younger sons were not much older than my father William Overstreet, who was Anderson Overstreet's son. Anderson Overstreet was Jane's nephew, son of John Overstreet, her brother. Jane's son, Walter McNeille married his second cousin Fannie Overstreet of Dekalb, Mississippi, daughter of Anderson Overstreet and his wife Sarah Hart Overstreet. Sarah Hart was born in Tennessee, March 8, 1829, near Wartrace, died 1916, buried in Dekalb, Kemper County, Mississippi.

While Anderson Overstreet was still a small tot and his mother's death having left such a sorrow in their father's home, John Overstreet saw that his motherless brood needed someone to take care of them so he decided to marry again. But, instead of an older, capable person, he married a young inexperienced girl, Emily Hilliard. Age fourteen years. This marriage recorded Sumpter County, Alabama took place in Sumpter County, Alabama in 1837. This put Anderson still in the care of servants for Emily soon had a brood of her own and the children of John's first wife had to rely more or less on themselves; except of course their aunts were nearby to keep a watchful eye on them, and to help with their rearing if the roads were good and they could come to visit. But Aunt Jane lived in Wayne County, Mississippi and the Family could not visit often, so John Overstreet's children by his first wife (who was a Miss Husband before marriage) did not fare any too well. However, they were educated fairly well and became fine sterling men and women.

Not long after the Civil War, which took a terrible toll, John Overstreet died leaving only a lot of land which he left to his second wife and to the children by his second wife. The negroes had been freed and the children by his first wife received nothing. In the fall of 1848, Anderson Overstreet married Sarah Hart, daughter of John Hart, and wife, Nancy Lawhorne Hart from Middle Tennessee, and settled near Dekalb County, Mississippi. In 1848 all her brothers and sisters left Tennessee and moved to Upshur County Texas. Anderson Overstreet's father then gave him one negro slave, Old Hagar, who nursed all their children.

Jane Overstreet married Rev. Wiley McNeill. We have birth records to show that the Overstreet family came at least by 1821 to Mississippi, perhaps earlier. It is not known whether Jane Overstreet married Wiley McNeill in another state, but I feel sure she married in Mississippi for her oldest child was born in 1833. I have before me part of an old paper, the name of which has been cut off - giving a whole column to the death notice of Col. Aden McNeill, her oldest son. The death occurred September 20, 1863 on the field of Chica-mauga. He was born in Wayne County, Mississippi, September 14, 1833, and was the oldest child of Jane and Wiley McNeill.

The obituary was written by P. H. Napier and from a date on an advertisement, I believe the paper must have been published January 16, 1864. Mr. Napier speaks of Aden McNeill as, "The peer of the noblest of Mississippi's noblest sons - his intellect, his integrity, his strict moral deportment, and strict application to either books or business; his love of books made the family determine to give him a finished education.

He was sent to Salem High School in Green County, Mississippi. Then was sent to Mr. Mellen at Pierce's Springs to complete his preparatory course. He then entered college at Oxford, Mississippi, but his health finally broke down due to too close application and he did not finish. He left for home to try to regain his health. When he was better, he studied law. While he was pursuing the study of this noble profession the present bloody war broke out, writes Mr. Napier in 1864, "and he was compelled once more to forsake his studies". He was among the first to volunteer to fight for his southern home and native land. Gave very efficient aid to Col. Gates of Shubuta in raising his company and when it was organized, he was elected first Lieutenant. When the eighth regiment Mississippi Volunteers was organized Captain Gates was elected Lieutenant Col. and Lt. McNeill was promoted to the rank of Captain. For twelve long months, he discharged his duties as Captain to the entire satisfaction of his superior officers and his company.

The Eighth Mississippi regiment was composed of twelve months volunteers and, of course, was entitled at the end of the year to a reorganization. When Capt. McNeill was elected Lt. Col. of the regiment Lt. Col. McNeill possessed the highest order of moral and physical courage, and he was distinguished for his undying attention to his duty in the camps, and his bravery on the battle fields. Regardless of the fatigues or dangers to which he was exposed, where duty called him there he was always found, never faltered, wavered, or hesitated. A rather frail constitution was sustained by an indomitable spirit through many a weary ordeal. His manly voice was heard from one end of the line to the other, as he cheered his men on to battle. "In spite of terrific strife, shrieks of dying, roar of musketry, and bellowing of cannon, he never lost his courage and self possession, and when he was slain, he was several paces in advance of his regiment, gallantly leading his men in the charge." (Quoted from Mr. Napier's article).

The article also states what a refined and cultivated gentleman he was with: "easy, graceful manners, interesting and instructive in conversation, gentle, amiable disposition and was uniformly courteous and kind to all with whom he associated. He was a universal favorite in the circles of society where he moved".

His sorrowing parents lost four sons in the Civil War. First Erastus, then Wiley, then Malcolm and last of all Aden who was their first born. I do not know whether the first three were married or not, but Aden was not. When he was killed, a little Valentine was found in his pockets that his sweetheart sent him. I do not know who she was. Rev. Wiley McNeill and wife Jane lived in Clarke County, Mississippi, at the time of the death, though Aden was born in Wayne County.

I also have in my possession a Civil War note sent to Col. Aden McNeill, Bridgeport, Alabama, requesting him to give protection to Dr. Fromme's horses. This was written May 6, 1863, and signed either L. Fromme, or T. Fromme, surgeon Eighth Regiment Mississippi Volunteers. I could not exactly determine which. Anyway, in a tiny cramped handwriting this Dr. Fromme tells of having his horses mane cut off; also an eye put out; and asks for a guard to be placed near him for protection.

Evidently, at that time paper was scarce, for Lt. Col. McNeill, on May 8, 1863, wrote on the back of the letter which he probably sent by a courier. His refusal stating in a few sentences his reasons. This is a copy: Hd. Qts. 8th Mississippi Reg., Bridgeport, Alabama, "I have always doubted the propriety and justice of requiring soldiers to do any kind of duty exclusively for the private benefit of an officer. There is no law nor order anywhere to be found authorizing the imposing of such duty. My own horse has all the while been equally exposed with yours and during two years service no such thing as guarding horses in our regiment has ever been known".

SIGNED: A. McNeill, Lt. Col. Comdg. 8th
Mississippi Regiment

This letter with its answer was evidently kept by Col. McNeill for reference.

Then again, on May 8, 1863, Dr. Fromm sent another letter to Lt. Thomas, asking for protection of his horses and stating the outrages they had suffered and also stating that Col. McNeill had refused an earlier request.

This was forcible written and brought results.

Dr. Fromme stated that law and order was everybodys business and that he certainly needed his horses to perform his duties. Col. Dickens sent an order written on the back. This document was neatly folded on the back dated, Bridgeport, May 8, 1863, signed by Dr. Fromme, Surgeon 8th Mississippi Regt.

"Application for protection of Property", written underneath the name. Underneath this in another handwriting, were these words on back: "Respectfully referred to Lt. Col. McNeill who will have

I (writer) could not exactly decipher these last three letters.

I will place these old documents in some Department of Archives where they will be in a fire proof building.

Also among Aden McNeilles papers was one charging Capt.

Samuel Prince Assistant Quartermaster, Jackson Brigade, Bridgeport, Alabama with using a negro teamster for his own flunkey, tending his horse, cooking for his clerks, etc. Also charge was brought against R. Brooks, Brigade Wagon Master, Jackson Brigade for the same thing. These negroes were supposed to drive Government teams exclusively.

I do not know what became of Madison and Oliver Overstreet sons of John Overstreet and brothers of Anderson Overstreet.

Coleman Carroll (or Coleman Calvin), one of Anderson Overstreet's brothers left for Arkansas. His son or grandson married into Holcombe family. (See Holcombe Genealogy under Overstreet).

Fannie Overstreet, daughter of Anderson Overstreet and wife Sarah Hart was born March 22, 1863, died age 87 years -- married January 15, 1895 Walter McNeill, who was born October 15, 1859.

The Overstreets had black hair, blue eyes and red mustaches, but some had brown eyes. Aunt Fannie had large brown eyes. Husbands had brown hair, large soft brown eyes.

Aunt Fannie Overstreet daughter of Anderson Overstreet and wife Sarah Hart graduated at Cooper Institute in 1884. At graduation she wore a blue nuns veiling made with seven gores and trimmed with a bertha of cream lace.

She taught in Kemper County in 1885 for $15 first month, and $20 second month, but taught there only two months. Then she took a position to teach in Neshoba at $50 a month and taught there seven years. Her board was $8.00 a month. Roll Call was at 7:00 in the morning, then came spelling.

Hiriam Leggett was a grand daughter of Elizabeth and John Husband and she says her mother Nancy Husband was positively born after they came to Mississippi. No Nancy was John and Elizabeths only daughter and was born October 4, 1821, but cousin Helen says Jackson was older than Nancy so he may have been born in North Carolina. Nancy was born near Paulding, Mississippi, Jasper County. Now in 1821, date of Nancy's birth, shows the Overstreet family in Mississippi at that time but I hardly believe they had been there very long before that so presume Jackson was born in North Carolina.

On January 5, 1837, Nancy Husband married Peter Roberson. This Peter Roberson, father of Cousin Helen Leggett always told that he was born March 1, 1810, in South Carolina. Cousin Helen was the youngest of seventeen children.

I do not know where Betsy and John Husband are buried, but Nancy, their daughter, and her husband, Peter Roberson, are buried in Clark County in the Slayton Graveyard.

Peter Roberson always told his family that he was born in South Carolina, March 1, 1810. He spoke of being born in South Carolina frequently. In fact, so often that cousin Helen says she is sure that her mother would have said she was born in North Carolina if that had been true and in as much as her mother never mentioned North Carolina as a birth place makes her positive that Nancy Husband was born in Mississippi. So we know that the Overstreet family was firmly established in Mississippi by 1821. Just how long before that, we do not know.

Perry Co. Miss. formed out of Western part of Greene Co., which is south of Jones and Wayne Co.

All of this was part of Washington County when Miss. was a territory and when Ala. was formed, part of this Washington County became a county in Alabama and the rest in Miss.

Could this James Overstreet be the father of our John Overstreet or only a cousin?

History tells us that Major John Overstreet killed Tarleton during the Locast Grove, a plantation he bought from Patrick Henry. There is a

Our John Overstreet's father was named James Overstreet.

The Husband Family

In the early part of the seventeenth century, one William Husband came to Maryland from England. The family back in England was a highly cultured one, and belonged to the nobility. There were several Episcopal clergymen in the family and in this country, we find the ones who came over holding public office.

William I, had a son William II, and William II had a son William III. I do not know about the other sons and daughters of I and II William Husband, but, William Husband III married Mary Herman, daughter of Augustine Herman.

Augustine Herman was a German and became a prominent figure in the days of early Maryland, where he owned a large estate. He first landed in New York, and was a friend of Peter Stuyvesant, then having a quarrel with his friend, he left New York, and became a colorful figure in Maryland, where he was noted for his fine mansion on a large estate, and his spectacular wealth.

All this was copied from a book on the Husband family I found in Newberry Library in Chicago. I do not know whether we are kin to the Maryland Husbands, but it is presumed that some of their descendents came down into Virginia, for in 1702, I find mention of land in King William County, Virginia, of Thomas Husband and Henry Madison.

Husbands in Surry, now Yadkin County, in 1771.

In reading Maryland books mention was made of a gentleman who left the state and the article stated that when he moved to Virginia, he was fortunate indeed to have such good neighbors as the Husbands and the Madisons, whom he lived near. This makes the writer wonder if we have a Madison grandmother in our line for John Overstreet and wife - Husband named a son Madison.

This son, Madison Overstreet, married a Miss Johnston, of Sumter County, Alabama, and in the records of Sumter County, Alabama, I found the name, Madison Johnston. I do not know what became of this Madison Overstreet.

In 1825 in the early days of Smith Co. Miss. I find Thos. J. Husbands listed, as police (probably constable or deputy sheriff) no doubt he was a brother of John Husband-could have been John's father.

OVERSTREET FAMILY

After reading the 1820 census of Mississippi, I find I was correct when I stated that John Overstreet came into Mississippi about 1820.

In this census (1820) there were two Overstreets named John in Wayne County: John Overstreet Sr. and John Overstreet Junior. John Overstreet, Jr. is the one that is my greatgrandfather. The number of children he had at that time tallies perfectly with the census records which lists three males under 10 and two females under ten. John Overstreet had a fourth son, but this fourth son was not born till 1825. He was named Anderson P. Overstreet and became by own grand-father.

I did not know that John Overstreet Jr. had any daughters, but learned from another relative that he had two, Mary and Eunice. This all tallies perfectly with the census records.

Aunt Fannie always seemed to think that John Jr.'s father was named James, but this could have been a grandfather of John Jr.'s and the John Sr. also listed in Wayne County, Mississippi in 1820 census may have been John Jr.'s father.

John Jr. also had two brothers, William and Henry, and we know William was about twelve years old when he came to Mississippi. This also tallies perfectly with children of John Sr. by census records of 1820, which show John Sr. had 2 males, 1 (age 10 to 16) and 1 (age 16 to 18) who remained at home at that time for John Jr. had married. John Jr. had three sisters, Elizabeth, Mary, and Jane, and two of these I thought had married, but am not sure about Jane who may have been at home.

So it looks like that instead of James being the name of John Overstreet, Jr.'s father that John was the name and James may be his grandfather, but not the James Overstreet in Greene County Miss. mentioned in 1820 census because his number of children doesn't seem to tally.

Efforts to trace the early history of the Overstreet family have met with little success. In the counties where they lived, many of the court records have been destroyed or lost. Unless some old bible records are located, the complete story may never be known. The following fragments are given in the hope that others may add important information.

Letter of General James Oglethorpe to accountant says: There is an article of L 12, which was a loan in cattle to one Overstreet, an industrious man with wife and six children in Augusta. The inhabitants recommended him to me, he having been afflicted with sickness, and answered that by the milk of the six cows, the wife would be able to maintain the family. Colonial Records of Georgia, Vol. XXII, paragraph 245.

1743

From a document published in London in 1743, the Township of Augusta, outside the garrison seems to have embraced only a small colony of Indian Traders. The list of settlers at the fort shows 18 names, among them Henry Overstreet. Georgia Landmarks and Memorials by Lucian Lamar Knight. Vol. 1, page 882.

May 4, 1762

At a meeting of the Council of Savannah, was read a petition of Henry Overstreet, setting forth that he was lately come into the Province with his family, consisting of a wife and six children, in order to settle and was desirous to obtain a piece of land for cultivation. Therefore, praying for one hundred and fifty acres about three miles above the mouth of Brian Creek in Halifax District, adjoining the land granted John McNeish, Petition granted. Colonial Records of Georgia, Vol. VIII, page 678.

February 1764

Read a petition of Henry Overstreet setting forth that he had 150 acres of land granted him in Halifax District and was desirous to obtain an additional tract, having a wife and five children; therefore, praying for 150 acres in Halifax District adjoining the land before granted him; one hundred acres whereof was before ordered John McNish, but grant had never passed for game and residue was vacant land. Consideration postponed. Colonial Records of Georgia. Vol. IX, page 128.

September 1764

Henry Overstreet renews petition and is granted 150 acres that has been previously granted John McNeish, deceased, out, never taken out. Page 211.

January 1765

Governor signs grant 150 acres in St. George Parish to Henry Overstreet.

July 12, 1810

Daniel Overstreet married Mary Albert in Montgomery County, Book A, page 7.

From all of the above it appears that Henry Overstreet, Sr. of Scraven County, is our first ancestor that can be identified. He probably came from South Carolina as did his son, Henry, Jr. What relation they were to the other Henry Overstreet, who obtained the two grants of 150 acres each and who borrowed from John Wartsch, is not known. Likewise unknown is the relationship to the earlier Henry of Augusta.

It is reasonable to assume that those who signed and witnessed the deed conveying the property granted Henry Overstreet, Jr., were his heirs and perhaps his children. They were: John Overstreet (Sr.); Daniel Overstreet (The Elder); Braswell Overstreet; Sarah Canmeh and Charity Mulkey.

Of the next generation we have John Overstreet, Jr. and Daniel Overstreet (The Younger). He is not referred to as Junior, however the first court record found (his marriage) was dated after the elder Daniel's death.

No record of John Jr., other than a land grant has been found in Montgomery or Emanuel County. Daniel may have been the son of Daniel (The Elder) or Braswell. However, his oldest son and five grandsons were named John. This could be significant. Perhaps some one will find the answers to these many questions. Anyone having information on the family is invited to correspond with the writers.

DANIEL OVERSTREET (THE YOUNDER)

Daniel Overstreet was born about 1794, lived in that part of Montgomery County that later became Emanuel. He was married July 12, 1810 in Montgomery County to Martha Alberson, born about 1793.

Daniel Overstreet purchased 200 acres of land in Emanuel County on Canoochee River from Henry Gay. Deed was dated January 14, 1821, but not recorded until April 15, 1872, over fifty years later. John Overstreet had just made his will, (September 14, 1871) in which he bequeathed property known as the "Gay" land.

The 1820 Census of Emanuel County lists Daniel Overstreet, age 18-26; wife, age 26-45; four sons and two daughters, all under 10 years of age.

Daniel Overstreet died about 1825, and his wife Martha was executrix of his estate. Mary Overstreet, Jr. Daniel and John Scott were surety on her bond dated February 6, 1826. An appraisal of the personal property was also located, but nothing else. The early land records in Emanuel County are missing.

Six children were listed in the 1820 census and since Henry was born in 1821, Daniel and Martha must have had at least seven children, two girls and five boys. Records of only five children have been found. The others may have died in infancy.

Known issue: a. Rebecca Matilda; b. John; c. James;
d. Matthews; e. Henry.

a. Rebecca Matilda Overstreet, first child of Daniel and Martha (Alberson) Overstreet was born March 8, 1811 in Georgia, died September 16, 1872, married John Higdon, born February 16, 1809, in Georgia, died July 7, 1886, son of Burrell Higdon and wife Nancy Roberts.

John Higdon and wife Rebecca Matilda lived in Pulaski, Georgia and later in Decatur (now Grady) County, near Calvary. Both are buried in Higdon cemetery at Calvary.

The family is listed in the 1860 Census of Decatur County and John Higdon's occupation is farming. He was member House Representatives, Decatur County 1868- Ex. 69-70 Ex. Issue:

Dear Jane:

Here is a list of characters to confuse you:

WILLIAM JACKSON (Jack) OVERSTREET.....the murderer.

CHARLES WELLS.....the first victim. Wells is an orphan and is married to Parthena Overstreet (I believe that she is cousin of Jack Overstreet).

WILLIAM OVERSTREET (another one!)....I believe that he is the father of Parthena and the uncle of Jack. See signature on the Reward Offer.

G.W. NASH.....Half-brother to Charles Wells and co-signature on the Reward Offer.

REBECCA (OSBORNE) OVERSTREET....Wife of Jack Overstreet and second victim.

Later, I will tell you some of the speculation on why the first murder occurred and how Jack evaded the law for several months.

THE KILLING OF WELLS

The killing of Charles Wells, by W. Jack Overstreet, which was briefly noticed last week, occurred at Well's residence, Saturday evening, the 5th last. The weapon used was a double barrel shot gun. Overstreet had been to Coffeerville with a wagon, and upon reaching Well's house, as he returned, stopped and asked for a drink of water. Wells and his wife both went out to the fence, when Overstreet charged Wells with the commission of some unlawful deed. This Wells denied, and remarked that any one who made such an assertion told a lie, or a d__d lie, whereupon Overstreet shot and killed him. Overstreet was drunk and, we are told, threatened to shoot a man in Coffeerville, the afternoon of the same day.

Here is the loss of another life directly chargeable to drunkenness, for Overstreet would not have shot Wells if he had been sober.

Arrest of Clarke County Murderer.

W. J. Overstreet Hung at Farmersville, Louisiana.

We find the following in the Mobile Register of Saturday, the 1st instant:

W. J. Overstreet, who murdered Charles Wells in Clarke County last spring and then absconded, has met with punishment for another terrible crime at the hands of Judge Lynch. His wife, after Overstreet left Clarke County, came to her relatives living near Farmersville, Louisiana, where he joined her. He pretended to believe she was planning his arrest, and for that reason foully murdered her. After several days' search by an aroused people and much fighting, he was taken and imprisoned. A large number of men took him from jail on the night of October 29th and hung him. His wife was respectably connected, and leaves four children.

We are indebted to Mr. Jno E. Morris, acting Clerk of the Circuit Court of this county, for the following letter from Judge Killgore, of Louisiana, relative to the lynching of W. Jack Overstreet, late of this county:

Farmersville, Louisiana,
October 30th, 1879

To the County Clerk of Clarke County,
Alabama:

Dear Sir:

W. J. Overstreet, alias "Jack Overstreet," who is charged in your county with murdering one Charley Wells, on or about the first of April last, was taken from our Parish Jail and hanged here last night.

Overstreet brutally murdered his wife here a few days ago and was pursued and captured by an armed force, or rather by a body under a hue and cry, and lodged in our jail. He was taken from the jail by a mob and hanged in our corporation limits. He confessed to killing Mr. Wells, of your county, and also to the killing of his wife here. I had already issued a warrant for his arrest for killing Mr. Wells of your county, and one for the killing of his wife here. He was arrested under the warrant issued for him for the murder of his wife. Please let me hear of the particulars of his murdering Mr. Wells. I am, very respectfully,

G. A. Killgore, Jr., Parish Judge.

Hanging of Jack Overstreet

From private letters to Mr. Hiram Osborne, of this county, a brother of the wife of W. Jack Overstreet, we get some particulars relative to the death of the unfortunate couple.

Mrs. Overstreet left this county the latter part of last summer and went to Louisiana, near Farmersville, where Napoleon Osborne and, perhaps, other relatives reside, arriving there early in September. About three weeks thereafter Overstreet joined her there, and seemed glad to meet her and the children. He borrowed Mr. Napoleon Osborne's gun, and, about the same time, told his wife that he was going to buy a wagon for the purpose of removing to Arkansas, and desired a neighbor to take the children, for a short time, that he and his wife might take a trip to look at the country. He then went off and was absent some three weeks, when he returned and said there was a crowd of men after him and trying to take him. About this time, Osborne had a warrant issued to recover his gun, as Overstreet had refused to give it up. He also refused to give up some twenty dollars of his wife's money.

While the officer was seeking to arrest him, he hastily went into the house where his wife was cooking breakfast, about sunrise, and struck her a terrible blow on the head, with a maul, causing her death in about twelve or fifteen hours. As soon as this was known, a large crowd of men joined in the pursuit and came on him in a neighbor's cotton house where he was shot at sixteen times with no other result than a pretty bad wound in the leg and the loss of two teeth from a wound in the mouth. As strange as it may seem, he managed to escape. He lost his powder and was, hence, unable to return the fire of his pursuers. He was followed up, however, by the blood from his wounded leg, and finally caught and lodged in the parish jail, where he was permitted to remain about five days, when a mob of about 75 or 100 men repaired to the jail, broke it open, took him therefrom and hanged him to the limb of a neighboring tree until he was dead--a wretched death for a wretched man.

Since the above was written, we have received a letter from the Hon. John R. Tompkins, of Mobile, solicitor for this judicial district, enclosing a letter he had received from Deputy Sheriff John M. Lee, Sr. of Union Parish, Louisiana, relative to Overstreet's death. Mr. Lee says Overstreet was hunted eight days before he was captured. He says: "I never saw the deed, but learn that he confessed to the murder in Alabama. He was strongly suspicioned of having murdered another woman in the same vicinity only four days before killing his wife."

Dear Mr. Strickland,
You have been so kind to send me little extras which have helped me that I wish I knew more about the Hydes, to tell you, I did know that my grandfather Madison Overstreet's sister, Lucinda (Lucy), married Jesse Hyde
ca 1832 & that another sister, Melissa married Chas. Augustus Jennings (Sr.) - but that marriage took place in 1835 in Mobile, Ala. This Jennings was from New York & Connecticut. It is said C.A. Sr.'s & Melissa's son C.A. Jr.
(called Charlie) & the Hyde boys, particularly Charlie (Chas. H.) & Jack (Jackson) were great chums. NOTE - there was a Hyde boy Jefferson J.
too. Charlie's father died when he was ca 7. A few years later he was sent to an uncle's (Wm Jennings) in Bridgeport, Conn. to finish his education. In 1860 Paulding, Jasper Co. Miss. we find him a lawyer in the same building with Dr. J.
Walton who later m'd. Charlie's half-sister Susan Emily Leaven. This Jennings family was not of the Artemus Jennings family of Perry Co.

I didn't know until I got the records of Perry Co. that Jesse Hyde ever lived in Perry Co. - only that he was b. Wilkes Co. Ga. June 1799 & died Jasper Co. Miss. 10 July 1876.
Here is how things might have been - some guess work on my part - along with facts.

FACTS:

In this census are James & Ann (Stripling) & children Madison, Lucy, Thelissa & Wm H.

Who is the other male 26-45?
Could it be Jefferson, a brother to James? I don't know the 3 other children. I already knew & your book Volume I shows Wm Overstreet over 70 yrs. of age in 1822-1823.

I'm just guessing that he's the father of James & Jefferson & that they all lived in Wilkes Co. Ga. along with Jesse Hyde.

I'll give you 5 generations of the Hydes:

grand father. Turned out the name is now Hough - on my mother's side.

Also found Wm. Kellen whose granddaughter m'd. my Madison Overstreet.
And Solomon Johnson & Benjamin
Wells look familiar too. The Mississippi woods is full of 'em.

In your Strickland Research do you have anything from Mrs. Hilton (Clara) Isher? I have 10 typed pages she sent to my husband's cousin.
If you would like, I'll mail it to you & you can send back to me.

Dear Mr. Strickland
I think I can tell you about one marriage in Perry Co. ca 1832. It would be Jesse Hyde (see pp. 5-13-21 of Vol. 2) and Lucinda (Lucy) Overstreet. Lucy was the daughter of the James Overstreet found in Vol. 1 pp 15-22-28-34-40. James Overstreet, b. ca 1780, & Ann Stripling, b. 1783 in S.C., had settled in Jasper Co. by 1837 and Jesse & family are found in the 1840 Jasper Co. census. Their first child (Andrew) Jackson was b. 1834 and the second one was Jesse G. b. 1837, before Jesse left Perry Co. The rest were b. in Jasper Co. with notation, "Julia was b. 12 Aug. 1839 at Overstreet Old Mill." By 1850 Jesse owns the hotel in Paulding & my grandfather, Madison, son of James, is a grocer-merchant. And by 1850 Wm H. b. 1810 who married Catherine _____ in Miss. is living in Mobile, Ala. His first two children were b. Miss. ca 1835 & ca 1838 & the rest in Mobile where he was a policeman. Wm H.'s marriage could well have been in Perry Co. around 1834. Melissa was b. 1812 - was m'd. to Chas. Augustus Jennings (Sr.) in Mobile on 13 October 1835. This Jennings had no connection with Artemus Jennings of Perry Co. He was b. in N.Y. & lived in Conn. till he came to Mobile.

Madison didn't marry my grandmother, Margaret Killen, until 1843 when he was 30 yr. old & living in Paulding.

1820 Greene Co. Miss (Perry)

James Overstreet 220020/21010

2 m <sup>Madison</sup> under 10; 2 m <sup>Wm H.</sup> 10-16, 2 m <sup>James</sup> 26-45

2 f. <sup>Lucy Melissa</sup> under 10; 1 f. 10-16; 1 f. <sup>Ann</sup> 26-45
All I know for sure

Is "Old" Wm b. before 1752 the father of James? Where is he in the census? Is Jefferson a brother of James & with him in the census? I find no Jefferson in censuses except children of Madison, Lucy & Johnson Overstreet who also has a Madison & a Wm.

I did not know before I got your Perry Co. records where John Hyde was before 1840. He was b. Wilkes Co. Ga. 1799. There were Overstreets in Wilkes Co. so maybe they came together to Perry Co.

Many thanks for all the tidbits.

Sincerely,
Ruth H. Allen

Just a note as I want to get this going to you. Now a word of explanation. This correspondence was to my husband's cousin, Mrs. La Vern (T.W.) Anderson, of Sylacauga, Ala. I haven't done too much on the Stricklins (and Curtises) as I spend what little time I have on my Overstreets (and Killens) & Talberts. And work on the latter has been very rewarding. Information comes easier on the big land & slave owners.

For sure, we know only back to Thomas Stricklin b. N. C. 8/20/1805 - settled in Wayne Co. Tenn. We think his father was John.

I hope you will get something out of all of this. You may return to me at your convenience - no hurry. Hope this is of help.

Dear Jean:

Sorry I haven't got back to you,
Christmas etc, has been busy. I think it was the Jacob Overstreet family you wanted the oral story on.

Jacob Overstreet Born 1810 Ga.

married 1829

Keziah Goodwin Born 1810 Ga.

IF Almada Loper B 1819 - D 1900

Age 80. Headstone in Strengthenford
Cem. Reads Almada

Wife of Jacob Overstreet

Died 7-27-1900 AGE 80

Jacob and Keziah first show up on 1850 Census in Wayne Co. I believe you know
Mig Smith of Boque City, Mo.
they told me that Jacob probably moved his family to Texas - But Jacob is back in 1870 Census
Alexandria as wife - the three Loper children + one Martha Ovs. Born 1847
I don't know why but Almada's name is different on each Census

Record. Jacob must have died before 1880 Census.

Almema is listed with Initial
A. OVERSTREET no Jacob

George Taper 28 this is same child listed in 1870 Census with Jacob. All of the Overstreet children are gone by 1880 but I think theres an explanation for that too.

Jacob + Keziah's children are Samantha B. Ga 1829

Nancy Elizabeth B Ga 1830

Rebecca B Ga 1832

Mary Elizabeth B Ga 1834

John B 1838

Jackson B 1839

Cousin John
Dorchester
Samantha is the great grandmother of my son in laws mother {Hope I can make this clear} So! if the above John is my G. Grandfather that makes my son in laws mother my co-cousin.
Sry! the thing we find when we start chasing ancestors. Any way I was told that Samantha was 13 when she married. Grey Smith (young) Mrs Roberts →

told me that Samantha was not an Overstreet. But Mrs Doherty told me her Great Grandmother was most definitely an Overstreet - then Mr. Hal Clark told me that Elizabeth was not an Ovs. I know how easy it is to take Peoples word with out Proof. for years I thought my Great Grandmother was a Walters {my 90 year old Aunt Het told me so} then I find out shes a Williams. I found both Samantha and Elizabeth Graves Different Cemeteries tho. I was trying to get info on Jacobs John, and Mr. Clark told me that John was killed in the Civil War. No Proof, I cant talk I havnt found any Proof of any John being killed in that war {Wayne C. Johns} will keep looking but Im about to run out of Leads. Im going to the Archives again Hope this gives you a little info - I've copied all the Census records they have at the Library Am gonna try the Archives again - if you need any let me know.

Dear Please dont pay any attention to the wording in this

Dear Mrs. Kirkland:

I am seeking information on John McMillan, ca. 1829, and Sarah Overstreet, ca 1829, of Wayne County, Mississippi. Who are their parents? When and where did they marry? Date of death and place of burial?

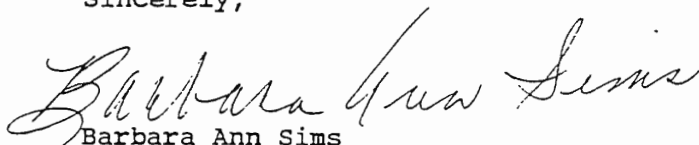

On the 1850 Wayne County, Mississippi, census they are shown married, each age 21, with Sarah, age 7/12, all with birth place of Mississippi. They lived by Sarah Cooper, age 42, birthplace Georgia.

On the 1880 Jackson County, Mississippi census, John and Sarah McMillan and 5 children with Sarah Cooper, age 75, mother-in-law, are shown living with W. J. DePriest.

Other McMillan children: John Marion, ca. 1852, Brazel (various spellings) ca. 1854, Robert A. ca. 1857, William Taylor ca. 1861, Mary ca. 1865, Samuel ca. 1867, and Thomas ca. 1871.

Any information on John McMillan and Sarah Overstreet will be greatly appreciated.

Jane...I would love to have these data sheets. They will be of much help. Repethere's still on the BB. So many people are leaving I don't know who is here for sure. I may leave soon too.

I wanted you to know that with the material Martha Cook Veselka sent me I was able to trace the Clarke Co Ala Overstreets to the family that came to Wilkes Co, Ga. from Fluvannah Co Va. about 1785. They are no relation...or only marginally related...to the Brasswell group as far as I can see at this time.

I believe my Stephen is the son of Samuel and Mary who were in CC Ala by 1830. John W. may be their oldest son, although there was a John Bell Overstreet b. 1830 living with them in 1850. John W. and Stephen may (one or both of them) be the sons of Pittman, but Stephen is definitely the right age to be an older son. Assuming the 1840 Wa. Co Ala census info which lists John W. as 20-30 is correct, he could be the oldest son b. about 1810. Mary would have been about 15 at the time of his birth.....This is not yet provable beyond a doubt, but there is no other family that both Stephen and John could have been with in 1830. And John W. is well-documented in Clarke Co in this time frame. I just think that when you see hoofprints you should think of horses and not giraffes.

Pittman, Samuel, William, James, and John Dalton were the sons of Wm. Overstreet and Elizabeth Thurmond b. Goochland, Fluvannah Co, Va. Elizabeth's parents were Benjamin Thurmond and ----- Moss. Benjamin was a Rev. War veteran who received land grants in Wilkes Co., Ga. for his war services. Moss/Thurmond families were intermarried and were couplings of Overstreets. James Overstreet., Wm Overstreet JUNIOR, and JOHN MOSS were legatees of Pittman O's will, which Samuel Overstreet administered. I can find no mention of orphans in Pittman's will.

Pittman O. and Wm. O are accused in an article in a Ga. newspaper about 1819-1820 of stealing five slaves owned by JOHN MOSS. This happened on John Moss's plantation near Washington, Wilkes Co, Ga.

The oldest brother John Dalton O. b. 1783 Va. stayed in Ga. He is the ONLY Overstreet on the 1850 census from Va. I have been able to identify all the other Overstreet families who were in GGA in 1850 (and actually most of the Overstreets in Ala and Ms. also!)

I also was able to identify my Lovelace family this past week and trace them back to 1779 NC. They were in Chambers Co in 1860. If you would like, I will send data sheets on all of them for your library. I still have your address.

Thanks for all your help to everyone. I could never have done this without you!! Regards.

Dear Jane:

Thank you for your letter. I was sure that something of an emergency nature had occurred, and I was sure that you were not rude.

I am enclosing the Overstreet page from the Wayne County Phone Book. Perhaps you can contact one of them who is working on this line. I do not have any names in my files that I could refer you to since Mrs. Stricklin died. There was a minister in Smith County at one time but he has moved and I have not been able to locate him in the last couple of years.

If I come across anything else I will send it to you. Good luck in your research.

Dear Jean,

I am sorry for so rudely interrupting our conversation today. I am an RN in the Radiology department in Group Health Central Hospital in Seattle, and as I was speaking to you during a "quiet" moment, an emergency patient literally rolled into my office. I don't want you to think that Overstreets are rude by nature!

Thank you so much for the material on OVERSTREET. Based on this material and "bits and pieces" told to me by my father, Stephen Harold Overstreet, I believe this may be the same family. Stephen, b - 1770, whose son appears to be

John b 1804 Ga, I believe to be the father of Stephen H. b Ga 1814, who was my g-g G.F. It appears that he may have been the brother of Brewster, John, and possibly Moses.

Thanks so much for your assistance. I promise to send a geneology/pedigree chart when I prove this data to my satisfaction, and I promise not to be so rude in the future.

Sincerely,

Jane Overstreet Stein

<sup>ps</sup>
My cousin Dr Robin M. Overstreet is a professor of marine biology at Ole Miss.
Although raised in Eugene, Oregon, it appears he has returned to an ancestral territory.

Dear Jane:

I apologize for being so long in replying to your letter of July 31. I have been out with eye surgery and am just now getting back to work.

Enclosed are the copies you requested and some other pages that we have on Overstreets. I believe the Mrs. John Stricklin who worked for so many years on the Overstreets of Wayne County is now deceased.

I have no material on Clarke, Greene, counties Alabama. I have enclosed one page from the History of Washington County, Alabama Vol. I. I did not find any more on Overstreet in the book.

I hope that some of this helps. If we can be of further service, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Jean Strickland

Dear Jean and Pat :

I am forwarding a report that I have compiled of the "Overstreets" of Wayne County excluding our Overstreets who moved to Kemper County. I took the liberty of using information of yours plus notes and research that I completed while studying our group to formulate a family grouping for the Braswell Group and the John Overstreet Group (with Stephen on 1850 Census in Clarke County, MS). I hope that you understand that right now this is speculation for all of the linkage, and my purpose in sending it to you will provide me with your thoughts on it. I just hope you have enough time or interest to criticize the report. I still believe that most of the Overstreets are related and that includes the Paulding group (Jane Stein and Strickland). The note about the two brothers in Newton County (which you do not search often) puts them into the picture also. I am also tracking the bunch in North Mississippi when I find the time.

I think that I gave you information about Marilyn's Overstreets being connected to the Husbands, McNeill (buried at Beaverdam all in a row), and Grahams. It should not be long before I print a copy of a complete survey of that family. You will get a copy.

Jean I was reading some of my mother's old letters recently and have discovered that Mary Ann Cochran may have been kin to some McRaes. Mom had always told me that she died in Jackson at Bret Harts home. Bret was a butcher in Jackson. He was born July 23, 1859 in Bogue Chitto and his parents were James Hart and Jane Grice. Bret died in 1944 and I have his death certificate. Mom's correspondence also indicates that Mary Ann Cochran's body was brought back to Brookhaven (Bogue Chitto or Lincoln Co) for burial. Do you have cemetery records for that area? She would be listed as Mary Ann Lofton (Loften). This information leads me to believe that either James Hart came from a linkage with McRae or Jane Grice. Mother used the term cousin. Remember she was from Wayne County (State Line).

Well, I hope that I have not inconvenienced you too much, and you know how much I care about both of you. Your assistance to date has made me pretty successful. Please criticize the hypothesis.

Respectfully,

Dear Mrs. Stricklin:

I was looking through Records of Washington Parish Louisiana by E. Russ Williams and ran across the following record:

10-11-1858 Samuel Hyde and wife deed to John B. Davidson for $1,000. tract lying east of the w. prong of Big Creek known as the Wiley Robertson tract containing 640 acres - bounded north by Benjamin Bradshaw, west by Peter Bankston, and Samuel Hide, south by Samuel Hide and east by Public Lands - also another tract adjoining the same on the north, on the west by w. prong of Big Creek, south by Addison tract, and east by Solomon Strickland - containing 150 acres. Mrs. Elizabeth Bond wife of vendor consents to sale. Witnesses: Isaac and Jesse Hyde. Recorded 6-15-1859

You may already have this information, but I was wondering if Samuel Hyde could be related to your Jesse Hyde. There is a Samuel Hyett on the tax rolls of Perry County at the same time as Jesse Hyde. Do you think he might be the Samuel Hyde that is in Washington Parish, La.?

Solomon Strickland is listed in the 1823 tax list for Perry County and disappears after that. I am trying to trace this Solomon Strickland as I believe him to be a brother to Simeon and John who settled early in Wayne and Greene Counties. If the above are part of your Jesse Hyde's family in any way, it would lend some credence to the Solomon Stricklands possibly being the same.

There are several more references to Samuel Hyde in this book on Washington Parish, LA that I will be glad to send you if you are interested or they pertain to your family.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

Ben Strickland

Dear Ms Strickland,

Thank you for answering my letter. I am a novice and only been researching since Feb., so I may not be able to give you any useful information from Jasper Co. However, what I have I will gladly send you. My family sheets are not complete since so many family members have died and the cousins that we know about don't seem inclined to answer letters.

I am not sure if you want only marriages that took place in Jasper Co., or also the former residents' marriages. My husband's grandfather, Charles H. Ferrell (b. in MS) left his family, married in 1886 in LA, then later moved to Texas. He died in Pecos, TX.

I learned his grandmother's maiden name from a query in the Miss. Genealogical Exchange (1971-2), so I am sending a copy of the sheet in case you haven't seen it. I hope the other sheets are clear. Sorry there isn't more. IF I am able to find any thing else, I will send it.

The main question for me right now is proving that William B. Ferrell's father was William C. Ferrell. I am hoping that a gravestone will have the correct birth date on it. There is a discrepancy with 2 newspaper obituaries. (Wm. C.) Also I am looking for the birth and death years of Wm. B.'s wife, Julia Hyde Ferrell. I was hoping for a probate packet, but with two fires in the courthouse, there's not much hope.

Hope I haven't tried your patience.

Yours truly,

Barbara Ferrell

4. William C. Ferrell d. 1843 near Paulding MS b. Va

(I am trying to prove that this is the same Wm. C. who was in Halifax, VA. His age was reported as 50 and also as 53 at death in the Natchez <sup>Ms.</sup> Free Trader, Aug. 30, and Sept. 6, 1843. I was hoping to find his grave inscription.) There was a Wm. C. Ferrell who married an Eliza Reves in 1819 in Halifax, Va.

His gravestone was listed as Confederate in MG Ex, but with the middle initial as H and the wrong birth year if his CSA records are correct. Name is spelled several ways in census, but this was his signature - W.B. Ferrell

3. Julia E. Hyde Ferrell

I am hoping to find her grave listed to get correct birth and death dates.

Q-1175. OVERSTREET-KILLEN-STRIPLING. James Overstreet, born ca 1780 in Georgia or South Carolina, married Ann Stripling, born 1785 in South Carolina. James and Ann lived in Georgia, probably Screven County, where several children were born: Wm., date unknown; Lucinda (Lucy) ca 1810; Madison, 20 February 1813, and others, names unknown. This family moved to Mississippi after 1813 and James died in Paulding, Jasper County, in 1846 and Ann died there in July 1860. Lucinda married Jesse Hyde ca 1832 and they owned the hotel in Paulding. Madison, a merchant in Paulding, married Margaret Killen in 1843. There were eleven children born to Madison and Margaret. Only one of these children married in Mississippi - Augusta, who married B. J. Morrison 17 April 1867. In ca 1868 this family moved to Bosque County, Texas and then in 1878 to Ft. Worth, Texas. The 1830 census for Yazoo County, Miss. shows a Wm. Overstreet. In the 1850 census for Jasper County, Miss. there is a Wm. Overstreet, age 60 and born in Georgia, living with a son Johnson Overstreet, also born in Georgia. Is this Wm., born 1790, a brother of James, born ca 1780? There was a James Overstreet who was sheriff of Perry County, Miss. 1821-1827. And in the Perry County State census 1 Jan. 1822-15 July 1823, there was a Wm. Overstreet over 70 years of age. Was he the father of James, the sheriff? Was he the father of Wm., also, who was 60 in 1850? Henry Overstreet came from England to the Georgia Colony in the 1730's. "The Proverbial Three Overstreet Brothers," came from England to Colony of Virginia ca. 1759. There were Overstreets in Virginia in the middle 1600's. The family name was Ober Strasse in Germany before going to England.

Mrs. John Stricklin, 5232 Collinwood, Ft. Worth, Texas 76107.

Q-1176. JOHNSON-HOUGH. Micajah (Mike) Johnson, born 12 January 1806, was a farm laborer working on the farm of a Hough family in Mississippi. In ca 1833, Nancy Hough, born 24 May 1816, ran off and was married to Mike Johnson and was disinherited by her father. They settled at Spring Ridge, Louisiana, where they raised eleven children. One of these was Francis Hough Johnson, born 16 May 1845, my grandfather. Nancy Hough had a brother Sylvester Hough who had a daughter Ella who married Tom McKee. Mike Johnson died 9 April 1881. Francis (Frank) Hough Johnson married Priscilla Jane Talbert in 1866 and their fourth child was my mother, born 8 September 1873. Who were the parents of Mike Johnson, also Nancy Hough? In the 1820 census of Miss. was a Francis Hough with a family of children living in Wayne County, also a Samuel Hough who was over 45 and no children at home. Same family?

Mrs. John Stricklin, 5232 Collinwood, Ft. Worth, Texas 76107.

Q-1177. MELLARD-BRIDGES-BARR-REID. Need maiden name of Nancy Mellard, whose husband, Thomas Mellard, left a will dated 2 April 1836 in Lawrence Co., Miss., probated March 1838, naming three sons: Thomas, William, and James. The witnesses: Peter Q. Bridges, B. R. Bridges, suggest that she may have been a Bridges. On Feb. 16, 1824, Thomas Mellard gave consent for Eliza D. Mellard to marry Joseph Barr. They were married April 28th. There were probably two other daughters: Nancy Mellard, whose guardian was H. H. Bridges (1844); Susannah Mellard, who married Lemuel H. Reid 1 Oct. 1838. Thomas Mellard, who was a Methodist minister, may have been the son of James Mellard of Newton County, Miss., who was known to be the son of William Mellard, who died in South Carolina in 1783. I will appreciate any data on this Mellard family and will gladly exchange any data that I have.

Miss Ann Mellard, Route 1, Box 228, Williford, Arkansas 72482.

5 Aug 1727: 540 acres in Bertie Precinct in Cashy Woods joining Samuel Herring, John Edwards, a branch of Rockquiss, Geo Stephenson, and a branch of Cashy. Wit: R. Everard, C. Gale, E. Moseley, R. Sanderson, T. Pollock, T Harvey, E. Gale.

24 Aug 1726: to Joseph Howard, 438 A. N. side Cashy Swamp in Bertie Precinct, joining Henry Overstreet.

Halifax and Warrenton Cos NC Rev. War Grants to NC soldiers:535 A to Wm Orange received by Henry Overstreet.

1790 Halifax NC census:Henry, Halifax district, Halifax Co: 2 males >16, 2 m < 16, 4 females, 1 "other,"(?) 13 slaves.

NC taxpayers; Henry, Haliday Co 1783;

Henry Cumberland Co 1755

from SC Patriots of the American Rev: Henry enlisted 4th Reg. on 1 Dec 1776 as a gunner.

Henry also listed in NC Rev War Records

Rev. War Records of the State of Ga: pp 173-174

"The committed tp whom were referred the revision of an act of Inflicting Penalties on and confiscating the estates of such persons are therein esecleared guilty of Treason, and for other reasons therein mentioned. Reported as follow, which was areed.

Burke Co: Henry Overstreet

The committee also report as their unanimous Opinion that none of the Persons before mentioned shall be eligible to hold office or vote.

p 177: The following persons to serve (in the militia ) or to find substitutes: HENRY OVERSTREET

Henry was mentioned as an Englishman who had come to Ga. of his own choice in 1746 (or so)

I think there was more than one Henry. What do you all think?

Jane and Lincoln: I know not. My information is sketchy.
Samuel Jumper, Jr. married his second wife, Elizabeth Overstreet, according to one source, in Montgomery, AL, Dec 12, 1844. They had two sons: Richard and John William Lawrence. I believe Samuel and Elizabeth died in Prentiss Co., MS and were buried in Jumpertown Cemetery. I was trying to learn more about her parents. Jane you may be right about Elias. My sources tell me that Elizabeth was born in Lexington dist. SC c. 1828.

Lincoln, I wish I could tell you more about the Overstreet's move to Arkansas. Spigner descendants in Jumpertown say William Joseph Overstreet, husband to Ann Caroline Jumper, moved to AR in 1850 from Jumpertown. William and Ann married 29 Nov. 1832 Autauga Co. AL. The Jumper clan moved to MS about 1845. My address is: 1150 Beacon Light Dr. Eads, TN 38028.

I plan to go to Jumpertown May 24 for Decoration day

Dear Pat:

I am sorry I have taken so long to answer your letter.
I have been trying to get as much information as I could before writing you.

Some of the information you sent me has been very helpful and I do thank you so much.

I am sending a family group sheet with as much information as I have on it. If I get any additional names or dates to add to this group sheet, I will send it to you.

My daughter and I are working on this project together and we plan to go to the State Archives in Jackson, MS in the near future. Perhaps we can find something there.

Thank you again for answering my query in Genealogical

I still have some loose ends to tie together.

Jane. I gathered that the Bohannons' father died. John O would have been the uncle by marriage. Re the Westward migration, according to some recent info I have received about the Moss family, they did go West. Nathaniel Moss, brother of Alexander, was on the 1790 census in GA. I feel sure of the relationship because his son Johnson married in Oglethorpe Cty in 1812. Nathaniel died in Lafayette Parish, LA, 1824. This info I received from Thomas Moss, who is also on the *P*. Thomas shows that Nathaniel had these children: George, Johnson, Henry, Mary, Melinda, Anderson, Melissa, Alfred, Joseph and Charity.

Thanks Pat:

I was in Dekalb this week chasing the wife's line containing the names I mentioned in post. I will look at Wayne for some clue. The Brittain family seemed to be merchants and Tannery folks. Several were up in Kemper prior 1850. I will check on the John Overstreet you mentioned. I did confirm one Overstreet piece of information in Clarke County Ms. this week. I re-visited the gravesite of a Zilpa Overstreet to read the old tombstone. Inscription ...Zilpha Overstreet -wife of Stephen Overstreet Feb. 10, 1797-Oct 12, 1849. This tomb is located on a field road in the Goodwater Area...Beaverdam. I think two other graves are there, but unmarked. Probably Stephen. mostly a pile of rocks.

I am beginning to clear up the Estabuthcie Overstreets a little. I can not find the grave of John James (J.J) Overstreet in the old cemetery there. Must have been uprooted or pushed over. John James was married to Virginia Brittain. She is buried in Hattiesburg by her Son James Hart Overstreet. Seems that John James died out in Texas when buying horses or something and was brought back to Estabuthcie for burial.

Have a real nice day !!! Weather is great for an Easter !

Dear Mrs. Hawkins:

In 1977 you were so kind as to write me and give me information concerning Matherville, MS. Since that time we have moved from Monahans, TX to Milton, Florida and are really enjoying it.

We have visited Wayne County, MS many times since moving here and talked to one of the ladies who wrote some of the information for the book from which your information came, but have been unable to find out who published it. We are trying to purchase a copy.

Would you be so kind as to tell me where you purchased your copy and who printed it, if you know? The next time I go back to Waynesboro I would like to try again to get a copy.

Also remember that you were researching the Overstreet's and McNeills and just recently found the following in The History of Wayne County by H. H. Daniel -

Beaver Dam Cemetery located in the woods on road from Vossburg to Shubuta

Wiley McNeil - 12-11-1807/7-23-1867

Jane Overstreet McNeil - 6-26-1816/5-8-1892

Have you seen the books on Wayne, Jones, Clarke and Jasper Counties that Mr. Daniel has published? If not, there is a lot of information on the Overstreet's in them. I have all four and would be happy to zerox the information and send it to you, if you do not have it.

Thank you.

Dear Mrs. Stricklin:

Remembering your interest in the Overstreet family, I wanted to send you this marriage which I found last week while at the Library in Mobile. (You may already have it)

Married on the 21st inst, Mr. James Overstreet to Miss Charlotte Cole, both of Halifax. Frid. 29 Jan 1813 (Raleigh Register)
This is from Abstracts of Vital Records from Raleigh, N.C. Newspapers 1799-1819

This may not be your James Overstreet, but Jesse and Mark Cole were both in Wayne County, MS according to the 1816 census.

I talked to a Mr. Walters in Richton, (Perry County) MS and he told me that his grandfather Walters raised two orphan boys by the name of Overstreet around Ovet, on the Perry - Jones County line.

We are almost ready to publish the cemetery records of Perry County. So far we have copied 72 cemeteries and there are 4 or 5 more which we are still trying to locate.

If you know of any marriages in Perry County prior to 1878, I would appreciate it very much if you would send them to me. As you know, the courthouse burned and no marriage records exist prior to 1878 so all we have to rely on are family Bibles, family traditions, and where we find a cemetery marker with the wife's maiden name on it.

Thank you for ordering our books.

Sincerely yours,

Ben F. Strickland

Jane, I thought you and Lincoln had had a major power failure and your computers crashed. Glad to see you're still here. I ran across a little info. that might interest you. I saw a book on Clarke Co. records and found a little info. "Estate of Pitmon OVERSTREET. Adm. Samuel OVERSTREET. Sec. Robert Harrison and Douglas Start. Jan. 1822. There is a marriage date on William and Permellia but I know you have that. It also list William as a farmer in Nettleborough, Clarke Co. which came from the Clarke County Al. Gazetteer of 1884-85. Also in the marriage records it shows W.J.OVERSTREET m Mary B.COBB on 12/24/1863. Also in the mar.rec. it shows Samuel Jr.m Ruth WELLS on 12/17/1846-- a Richard OVERSTREET m to Sarah WHITE on 11/28/1841-- a Richard OVERSTREET m to Rintha MOORE on 5/5/1836-- a Parthenia OVERSTREET m to Stephen m. DREWRY on 3/23/1859--a Julia A.OVERSTREET m to David W.COBB on 1/6/1859--a Joseph J.OVERSTREET to Talitha PRICE on 3/31/1862--a John W.OVERSTREET m to Ruth JACKSON on 10/11/1831--a Charles W. OVERSTREET to Parthena WELLS on 1/25/1838. It shows a Carestus OVERSTREET served as a county Constable in 11/15/1841. In the Probate Court Records, it lists "Last Will and Testament of Hamilton JONES, deceased. To nephew Cerestus OVERSTREET, sister Mary MULLIGAN. Signed 1/13/1843. Recorded 3/6/ 1843." Samuel OVERSTREET is also listed in a will of Wm. A. ROBINSON 1/21/1834 AND he is also listed in a will of Wm.MURRELL dec.'d 7/11/1833. Boy, he really got around didn't he? Hope this helps. I have a note indicating that Samuel Overstreet (Sr. or Jr.?) was responsible for the death of his great nephew, Joe Clayton Overstreet - born 2/11/1900, died 1/14/1922. No indication of whether it was an accident or homicide.

Tonight I talked by telephone with a man in Hanceville, Alabama. His mother is an Overstreet and PART CREEK! >> He further advises that THERE WERE DEFINITELY CREEK INDIANS WITH THE NAME "OVERSTREET."

Also, he told me that the Overstreets have a reunion in Bay Minette each year. He further advised that the last reunion that he is familiar with, over 200 attended!!! I am going to attempt to determine when and where the reunion will be held and attend. (He said it is usually held in May.)

I am sending some copies of notes that I have. Sorry I have no further documentation on them.

One other note--the fellow I was talking with mentioned >> a government settlement with the Overstreet Creeks. I don't know if this is a fact or fantasy, wishful thinking or pending legal action, or a settlement that has been made. Wouldn't this be an interesting research project for your grandson (or was it nephew)?

LINCOLN: Note that Samuel m 12/17/1846 to Ruth Wells is SAMUEL JR. This would indicate Samuel s/o Pitman as his father. Wm. was married to Parmelia Wells in 1847--this could make them brothers. Charles was m. to Parthenia Wells in 1838. Richard was m. 1836, John W. in 1831. This would make these three more brotherly age. Jack was b. 1842--this would eliminate Samuel and Wm as possible fathers. Also in Clark Co in 1841 was CERESTUS--he is listed as constable of Clark Co in 1841. This would make him a maybe. He is listed in 1850 census in Holmes Co together with Cenundus. (WHERE did they get these names?? Were they Creek derivatives??) I do remember talk of a riverboat, but it wasn't a captain.

It was more like the riverboat showed up, the dude got on, and pretty soon he was downriver drunk and broke. (Must be YOUR ancestor again!! Certainly not MINE!!)

Anyway, it's pretty easy to see how they got down the river to Mobile from wherever they were.

More later, Cuz.

Lincoln, it is my firm belief that some Overstreets came from beneath cabbage leaves so your William Marvin and my Stephen may not have parents...Charles was in Coosa Co Ala in 1850. When I looked him up, much to my astonishment, he was in the penitentiary!!!He is 38 y.o., b. Ala, in for manslaughter. (IS there a pattern emerging in Alabama!?) He is apparently housed next to horse thieves and mail robbers (as in stage coaches, I presume.) Charles, remember, married Parthenia Wells in 1838. In the 1850 census Parthenia 28 Ga, is living with her parents Jno. Wells 60 Ga and Sarah 53 Ga.in Clark Co Ala where she and Charles were married. There are no children living with her.

(Is this a soap opera vet?)

I DID NOT look up Thomas in Morgan Co or WH in Mobile Co 1850...I haven't researched much in Ms. but you'r welcome to what little I have. Happy confusion... CUZ JANE

SUBJECT: OVERSTREET/ALABAMA

Hello Lincoln and Jane, Yall won't believe this but you have just located another distant cousin. I couldn't believe it when I read your notes. I live in Mobile but was born and raised in Clarke Co. Al. My gg-gf on my mother's side was William Oscar HARPER who married Nancy Alice OVERSTREET on 03 Jun 1948. Her parents were William Columbus OVERSTREET and Permelia Jane WELLS. Small world huh? I found their marriage recorded in a book called "Hunting for Bears" marriage records-Clarke Co. 1812-1899. It had the date as 24 Dec 1865. Quite different from your post. Is my date wrong? This is all the info I have but I would welcome more. Hint! Hint! I have been concentrating mostly on my RUSH and HARPER lines since the genealogy bug bit me but I want all the info I can get. Do either of you know the parents or siblings of William Columbus? I would love to receive any info you have and gladly share anything I have or can obtain. I would really like to see those census records. I have only looked at census records on my RUSH line and most of that was in S.C. and Pa. There is an old OVERSTREET Cemetary about 9 miles from Jackson, Al. where I grew up. I visited it a few months ago and I took a few pictures. I did find one William C.OVERSTREET b.Feb.5,1865 and d.Jun 8, 1916. Is that my William Columbus or his father or what? If its mine, my marriage date is certainly wrong. It would be rather difficult to get married the same year you were born.I just found my pictures and that's the only one I took except for a sister of my mother's who died at an early age.If you will tell me who you are looking for, I can go back up there one week-end and take all the pictures you want. It is mostly OVERSTREETS, so I might find something you are looking for. Also, when I was growing up, my next door neighbors were OVERSTREETS. His name was Carlous OVERSTREET. I probably spelled it wrong! Some of his children still live in Jackson. Give you any ideas? I knew we were distant cousins but I never knew how. I still don't have the connection. He had sons named J.C.,Armond,Raymond, Edison, and James and a daughter named Rose. These are not in any particular order. James was the youngest, who is a few years older than me. His son married my wife's neice and he is in the Navy stationed in southern Fla. I hope you both will E-Mail me your addresses so if I find something you need, I can mail it to you. Let me hear from yall soon and thanks in advance for your help.

Hi, Roger, join the fun!! Lincoln and I have been talking on the BB for several months and we've just recently decided we must be cousins. We're both milling around in Clarke Co Ala with absolutely NO idea of to whom (if) we're related there, but we feel like we know everyone who was there in 1850, whether they're ours or not!!

My gg-gf STEPHEN/STEVEN OVERSTREET came through Ala from Ga on his way to Texas 1820-1844 (sometime) and I'm suspecting he may have been in Clarke Co @ one time. WILLIAM OVERSTREET m. PARMELIA J. WELLS 12/26/1847 in Clarke Co (Clarke Co Ala Records 1834-65.) Samuel Jr. m. RUTH WELLS 12/17/1846. CHARLES O. m. PARTHENIA WELLS 12/25/1838. Same Charles was in the penitentiary in 1850 census for manslaughter (I have copies of census info.) In 1850 Wm was 28 y/o, farmer, b. Ala. Parmelia was 16, b. Ala. Sarah was 1 y/o, b. Ala. From Lincoln's post, it looks like Wm. Columbus was the son of Wm and Parmelia and not in your direct line??

I will be happy to get copies of the 1850 Clarke Co census info which I copied at Ntl Archives and mail it to you. Send address by E-mail.

I am looking for info on JW (John W.) who was in 1840 Clarke Co census. My Stephen's bro (I think) was JW in Harrison Co, Tx. in 1850. His kids were b. Ala. between 1832-1840 (I think his wife died about then) and I suspect this may have been in Clarke Co. (Needle in a haystack!!) Also, if you find any Stephens marrying Janes in Ala, please send them my way so I can dance at their wedding.

Again, glad to have you here!! CUZ JANE

The key name for Overstreets in Wayne Co. is Braswell. I am sure Stephen had brothers, but don't know who they were. The ones in my file b. GA are: William 1810 in Hancock Co.; Stephen 1796 in Wayne, Jasper & Clarke Cos.; Madison 1816 in Jasper Co.; Johnson 1819 in Jasper Co.; Jacob 1810 in Wayne Co.; Braswell 1800 in Wayne Co. Prior to this, during the 1770's, this family was in NC. The ones born in NC seem to be: Moses, John, James & 2 Braswells. In 1800 NC I find listed Ferriby, Moses & Siler in Richmond Co., NC & John in Robeson Co. I would guess from the ages of the three men that Pherby was their widowed mother with 2 sons still at home. In 1790 NC we find Fereby Overstreet, widow with 5 sons & 1 daughter living in Fayette Dist. Robeson Co. In this same dist. we also find Silas Overstreet with 1 son & 7 daughters. In Halifax Co. 1790 we find Henry Overstreet with 3 sons, 3 daughters & 13 slaves. John Overstreet obtained a patent in Robeson Co. 1757. Since Robeson was taken from Bladen Co. in 1786, then this patent must have>> actually been in the part of Bladen Co. Robeson was taken from Cumberland Co. was taken from Bladen in 1754. In the NC tax rolls we find Henry & John Overstreet in 1755 Cumberland & John in 1777 Caswell Co. Caswell was taken from Orange & part of Orange from Bladen. So we seem to always go back to Bladen Co. as are starting place & to John as our earliest ancestor. I don't have the 1790 SC census, but it needs to be checked for Overstreets as well as the 1820 census of GA. It is obvious that our Overstreets were in MS/AL by 1820. A study of the tax rolls will give a more accurate year. The following is a list of grants made in GA prior > to 1820:

|          | Co.        | year (when they came of age or married or moved to this area) |

John of Granville Co. Its probable they crossed over from NC to join. There was a widow Sarah Overstreet in early Barnwell Co., SC. In 1818 Cynthia W. was the wife of Jabez Brown & Mary was the wife of Mr. Johnson; but there is no real evidence that the Overstreets were long time residents of SC; or if so, probably only one family. Sarah's Will can be ordered from Bk. 1, pg. 39 Barnwell Co., SC.
Henry Overstreet settled in Augusta, GA while a colony in the Winter of 1746. This is from a list of persons who came from Europe to GA on their own account.
Henry Overstreet left a Will in 1795 Halifax Co., NC listing Wife, Jane..sons: James, Richard & John Dawson..dau: Polly. James in under 21. Jane & Jeremiah Doggett, Exs. Wife, Jane, could have remarried to Jeremiah. Women remarried quickly in those days. It is possible that Henry of 1746 GA had ch. to went to NC..but this will need to be proven by finding who this Henry's ch. were & where they were living when adults. Right now, it looks like two Overstreet families.

I hope you people understand that any comments I might make are my own thinking on this, & I could be wrong about any item. I think there is something funny about Henry #1 of GA It seems to me that he either did not have any male desc. to survive until 1800; or they moved on. I do believe that the family of John #1 of NC is yours. I think you should try to gather as much pre-1850 data on this family as possible.>
You are lucky in that there are only a handful of Overstreet families in GA & NC prior to 1800. I did find that there were two men who were NC Rev. Soldiers..Henry (Canteen maker & John who was dead in 1783. His heirs were given 640 acres by the gov. at that time. I think it very possible that this John is Pherby's husband. I think you should try to get all the Rev. Army records on these two available; especially a list of John's heirs, where this land was, & if these heirs sold their warrents to others or moved onto the land themselves. You should also write the NC Library (not archi-
v) in Raleigh & ask if there is any information of the *cost to obtain a copy. When writing this library or Archives, always ask just one simple question...never more than one. Then you can write the NC Archives in Raleigh (they were in the same building, but different floors) to see if they might have any Overstreet Rev. War papers.

Then survey libraries in your areas (there are several of you & there is no reason why you can't "pool" your data) & try to find anything on Nansemond & Isle of Wight Cos., VA & anything written by John Bennett Boddie. Also, there are 2 or 3 vols. of a book called "Cavaliers & Pioneers". These books cover the counties in VA just north of the NC line where John #1 is seen during the 1720's. During this time, the border of NC & VA was not very clear & people will be listed on both sides. Nansemond is a burned Co. which is why I recommend the above books. They are a good substitute. Look at the NC marriage microfiche (LDS/FHC has a copy) & see if there are any early marriages listed. When going in to survey a library, I always take a small stapler, rolls of dimes for the copier, paper & pencils. I do not spend my time sitting at a table reading; but instead pull all books from the shelf that relate to the part of the country I am interested in, check the indexes & photocopy the title page & info. page my name is on. I staple these pages together & go on to the next book. I wait until I get home to go over the materials I have copied. I then use my word processor to

DOES ANYONE KNOW?

Mrs. Jeanette Tullos Caraway, 310 Chandler, Baytown, Tex. 77520 is working on a Tullos line. Richard Tullos was born 1701, Va. and died 1771 in N. Car. His wife was Elizabeth. Richard's father was John and John's father was Cloud Tullos. Richard had a son, Willoughby, born about 1759 in Va., died about 1840 in Simpson Co., Miss. Willoughby's son was Stephen Tullos, born 1802 in Ga. who married Nancy Merchant, born about 1800. (Willoughby's wife and mother of Sephen was Ann Mills, married in 1783 in Duplin Co., N. Car.) Stephen and Nancy Merchant Tullos were the parents of Willoughby Tullos who came to Texas in 1860 and died there in 1890. He was married to 1st. Nancy and 2nd Rachel. He had a brother, Jackson, born about 1820 in Miss. and a brother Vinson, born 1821 in Smith Co., Miss. and married to Sarah Runnels. Willoughby Tullos ( went to Texas 1860, twice married was the father of Jackson Tullos born in 1860 in Trinity Co., Texas, died 1942 and buried there. Willoughby Tullos fought in the Civil War. His father, Stephen, was supposed to have had a plantation near a river in Miss. Need proof of parentage of Willoughby.

Mrs. James M. Sagely, Rt. 2, Box 53, Clinton, La 70722, is interested in Sagelys anywhere. Especially Sagelys living in Jackson Co. Ala. prior to 1820 through 1840. Sagelys Chickasaw Co., Miss and surrounding area 1850; Lamar Co. Ala. 1850.

Mrs. Ruth O. Stricklin, 5232 Collinswood, Ft. Worth, Texas 76107, writes: "Before the Civil War, Madison Overstreet was a merchant in Paulding, Jasper Co., Miss. He was born Ga. 1813 and married to Margaret Killen in Miss. in 1843. There were 11 children, all born Miss. The oldest, Thomas J., born 1844, was killed in Civil War. After the War the family moved to Bosque Co., Texas. Then in 1878 part of the family moved to Ft. Worth, Texas.

Other children were: Augusta, born 1846, married to B. J. Morrison in 1867 (He died in Oct. of 1867); James Madison; Mary Melissa) Percy, Henry; Albert; John; Charles Bartow; George and Maggie. Madison Overstreet's mother was Ann Stripling from S. Car. What was his father's given name? He had a sister, Lucinda (Lucy), born Ga. 1810, who married Jesse Hyde. They owned the hotel in Paulding. Their daughter, Julia and other children were born at Overstreet Old Mill, Jasper Co. He had an older brother, William, who may have stayed in Ala., maybe Mobile, as the family moved from Ga. to Miss. One sister married a Jennings and their children were Charles Augustus, Melissa and Lillian. Probably others. One sister may have married a Grayson.

In the 1850 census for Wayne Co. there are listed Jacob and Braswell Overstreet, both born Ga. and Johnson Overstreet is listed in Jasper Co. Are these brothers of Madison? Who was Stephen Overstreet, listed in the 1820 and 1830 censuses in Wayne Co.? Family tradition mentions three brothers who came to this county from Eng., landing in N. or S. Car. Their names were James, John and Thomas. One went south, one west and one remained east. They were seaman who left Germany and, after arriving in England, changed their name from Overstrasse to Overstreet.

Mrs. Susan V. Chumsae, 26 Orne St., Worcester, Mass. 01605, is looking for parents and brothers and sisters of Polly and William Vesey. Polly married Orrin Copeland, son of Zion, Braintree, Vt. in 1817. William married Adaline Copeland, sister of Orrin in 1823. Their children were Maria, born 1823, married Norman Hudson. Lyndia C. born 1827, married Sylvester Treat and then a Mr. Howard. Benjamin W. Born 1829 married Sarah P. Waterhouse in 1853. Horace J. born 1834, married Helen E. Smith in 1856-7 and Sophia Wright in 1910. John Burridge, born 1836 in Ohio, married Margaret Alice Newell in 1860. Name is also spelled Veasey, Veasy, Veazie, Vessy, Vesey, and Vezey, Veazey.

Paul O.: Music overlooks family values

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Country music singer Paul Overstreet of Vancleave, Miss., says music overlooks family values. "I know a lot of people who are serious about their family and their fatherhood and also their work, but it's not magnified in our business," he said in an interview. "Daddy's Come Around," his current hit record, is about a man trying hard to save his troubled marriage. In his song "All the Fun," a husband goes home to his family at the end of the day instead of to a bar. Overstreet, 35, married with four children, also is a songwriter who wrote the Randy Travis hit records, "Forever and Ever, Amen" and "On the Other Hand."

Paul Overstreet wins 2 awards

Staff, Wire Reports

BUENA PARK, Calif. — Paul Overstreet of Vancleave, Miss., co-writer of Randy Travis's song Forever and Ever, Amen, won song and single honors. Overstreet, who accepted the award with Travis, wished his mother, Mary Lela Hatten of Vancleave, a happy birthday.

He told the audience that the hit song was written without using alcohol, or drugs.

A few hours before Overstreet appeared on the nationally-televised show, the Jackson County School Board issued a resolution honoring him for his achievements. The resolution will be presented to him by Superintendent Jimmy Smithie on Saturday when radio station WKNN of Pascagoula will hold a day in Overstreet's honor at Vancleave.

Overstreet went to Vancleave schools from first grade to 11th grade, when he moved to Prentiss, Miss. Smithie was his principal.

Master songwriter Paul Overstreet has an album hit

By JERRY SHARPE

Scripps Howard News Service

— "Heroes," Paul Overstreet.
RCA.

His voice is soft, an almost-generic baritone. The backup is Nashville-perfect, the kind available to any singer, so there's nothing unusual about it. What stands out about this second album by Paul Overstreet is the songs. But then they should. After all, he is a songwriter turned singer.

Since 1985, he has written five of Randy Travis' biggest hits, two for the Forester Sisters and Tanya Tucker, one each for Ronnie Milsap, Kathy Mattea, George Jones, Marie Osmond, Michael Martin Murphey and the late Keith Whitley.

And then, too, five of the songs he wrote for himself soared into the top 10 from "Sowin' Love," his first album in 1989: "Love Helps Those," "Sowin' Love," "All the Fun," "Seein' My Father in Me" and "Richest Man on Earth."

The songs on his new album, outright contemporary country, are so good that any one could end up following "Daddy's Come Around" up the hit charts. All deal realistically with life, including songs about the suburbanite father hurrying home to support "the blue-eyed kid on second base" and the mother who gets up nights to comfort a crying child.

And "Til the Mountains Disappear" was inspired, he said, "by a surprise re-marriage I planned for my wife. When we got married, a friend gave us rings 'cause we didn't have the money to buy 'em. Three years later I flew her and a minister to the top of a mountain in Colorado and asked if she would marry me again. And this time I gave her a wedding ring I bought."

Country star coming home to Vancleave

Paul Overstreet wins acclaim as national literacy spokesman

VANCLEAVE — Grammy Award winner and Vancleave native, Paul Overstreet, will be at the Vancleave Public Library April 20 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. for a special autograph session and reception.

The reception will be sponsored by Friends of the Vancleave Public Library and the Jackson County (Vancleave) Literacy Council.

Overstreet was named national spokesman for Project Literacy last September and his latest hit, Billy Can't Read, expresses his interest in promoting reading.

Billy Can't Read was written in 1990 by Overstreet and Jerry Michael as the anthem for the Literacy Volunteers for America and was included on Overstreet's Heroes album.

When Overstreet was named Mississippian of the Year by the Mississippi Broadcaster's Association, the MBA decided to produce a video with Overstreet singing Billy Can't Read to promote literacy. Yet, at that time, they could not find the needed financial backing to begin the project.

RCA stepped in and agreed to make the video, which is presently playing on music video stations throughout the country. The video includes a hotline number to literacy programs at the end of the song.

Paul Overstreet

"It's incredible what this video is doing," said Daniel Johnson, Overstreet's personal assistant. Letters of support have been received from throughout the nation emphasizing the song's ability to motivate non-readers.

Overstreet's latest honor was as co-writer of the second Grammy Award winning song, Long Can Build A Bridge, sung by the Judds. His first Grammy was in 1988 for his Randy Travis song, Forever and Ever, Amen.

Some of his other composing hits include: Digging Up Bones, On the Other Hand, You Again, I Fell in Love Again Last Night, A long Line of Love and Rise and Shine.

Sponsors of the function have urged the public to attend and meet Overstreet. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Vancleave Public Library at 826-5857.

at USM coliseum

HATTIESBURG — Country music superstar Paul Overstreet of Vancleave will present a benefit concert at the University of Southern Mississippi's Reed Green Coliseum Thursday, June 3 at 8 p.m.

Overstreet and his band, "Backroads," will present the "Family Reunion Tour" to benefit the USM Equestrian Center, which does not receive financial support from the university.

In his first-ever-tour, set for 18 months, Overstreet said he decided it was time to speak to young people in America.

Winner of two Grammy Awards and a Dove Award, Overstreet has been named BMI recording label's "Country Writer of the Year" for five consecutive years, writing more than 25 top 10 country hits. He also has been named the "SuperStar of Country Songwriters."

Sponsors include the USM Equestrian Center, USM Rugby Club, the Hattiesburg American, WDAM-TV and B95. Advance tickets are $12 for floor seats or $10 for all others; or $12 at the gate. Tickets may be purchased at Tom and Calico Cat in Hattiesburg and Laurel; Deposit Guaranty Bank at the University Mall; The Flower Market at Waldoff's; Lighthouse Bookstore; Circle "G" Western Store in Petal; WHST; or at the USM Sports Arena, Room 105.

Award-winning songwriter-singer returns to roots, rousing welcome

By REGINA HINES
Mississippi Press Staff

VANCELEAVE — Paul Overstreet's hit song No Place Like Home had a special meaning for him Saturday when the country songwriter-singer was welcomed back to Vancleave, his hometown. Nearly everyone in this community of 3,000 and others along the coast turned out for a parade and program honoring Overstreet, who helped write award-winning songs like Diggin' Up Bones, On The Other Hand, One Love At A Time and Forever And Ever, Amen.

"It's great to be in Vancleave and have the whole community involved," Overstreet said to an overflow crowd at the Vancleave Middle School gym.

"We'll have to do more of this."

"This is real special. I love the people here. I love the Gulf Coast," he said later in a radio interview following his personal appearance. Overstreet said he would like to bring some of his entertainer friends from Nashville to Vancleave to stage annual benefits in the future. "I hope this will turn into an annual thing. We can bring other talent in and have a big concert," he said.

An early morning downpour resulted in a change of plans from an outdoor ceremony on the athletic field to the gymnasium. But the sun was shining by the time a parade honoring Overstreet started at 10 a.m.

Overstreet said at one point that he felt a slight sprinkle again. "I thought we would have to get those mules running," he said.

Overstreet, his wife Julie and their children, Nash and Summer, rode in a cart drawn by a mule as they waved to the crowds in a parade along Mississippi 57 earlier.

At the gym, the school's alma mater played by the Vancleave High School Band brought back memories of his school days to the 32-year-old musician. Recalling the warnings he and his classmates had about wearing the right shoes on the gym's basketball court, Overstreet brought a laugh when he said, "Look, Mr. Smithie, I have rubber soles on my boots."

Jackson County Superintendent of Schools Jimmie Smithie, who was Overstreet's high school principal, presented him with a Vancleave baseball cap and a school board resolution commending him for his success.

Current Vancleave High School principal Charles Brown presented Overstreet with a basketball and a football shirt and gave a Vancleave cap to Overstreet's two-year-old son, Nash. He was also presented a plaque by the Jackson County Board of Supervisors.

A framed, autographed photograph of Overstreet was shown by Attendance Center Principal Billy Lee. The picture and a plaque will be hung at the high school.

The son of the Rev. W.C. Overstreet and Mrs. Mary Lela Hatten, both of Vancleave, Overstreet went to Vancleave schools from 1961 until 1972. He moved to Prentiss, Miss., in his junior year and graduated from high school there. After school, he went to Nashville, where he began working toward a songwriting and recording career.

Overstreet, who was quarterback on the Vancleave football team, was also presented with a scrapbook of his athletic achievements by Myron Tillman.

The homecoming, sponsored by radio station WKNN-FM in Pascagoula, began with a combination breakfast-class reunion Overstreet's honor at the home of his classmate Debbie Hackler.

The homecoming parade from Vancleave High School to Vancleave Middle School followed. A line-up of local musicians headed by the Country Junction Band entertained the crowd that came to the welcome-home celebration.

On Saturday afternoon, Overstreet was interviewed for more than an hour by WKNN disk jockey Rick Mize. The Vancleave residents and the radio station coincided Overstreet's homecoming with Randy Travis's concert at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum. Overstreet co-wrote a number of Travis's hit songs.

During the interview, Overstreet felt his string of hits resulted from his life of alcohol and drugs and songs with a positive message.

Other than some last-minute organizers of the day said everything well. "We kind of rolled with it committee member Pam Locke thank everyone who helped make success," she said.

CONCERT TIME — The highlight of Paul Overstreet Day was Overstreet's concert at the Vancleave Middle School gymnasium and a program of music by local entertainers that followed. Overstreet said Saturday that he like to be featured in concerts annually money for good causes in Vancleave.

Postmaster Arthur V. Smith today asked local residents to plan their Christmas shopping schedules now to permit early mailing of Christmas cards and gift packages, thus avoiding last-minute crowds at post office windows.

To assure delivery before Christmas day, the postmaster advised that out-of-state mailings should be made by December 10. Christmas greeting cards for local delivery should be mailed by December 15, he said.

"On Christmas Eve, it is a great satisfaction to be certain that your Christmas cards and packages have been delivered because they were mailed early," he pointed out. "When you postpone mailing to the last minute, you risk disappointing your friends by having your messages and gifts caught in the rush and perhaps not delivered until after Christmas."

He advised combining early mailing with use of "Do Not Open Before Christmas" notes or stickers on packages and envelopes.

The postmaster anticipates even heavier mail loads this Christmas season than during the record-breaking 1946 season. He said that local post offices across the nation are already preparing for this peak load by recruiting extra mail clerks and carriers.

"We would appreciate it if people would stop in next week and purchase the extra stamps they are going to need for their Christmas cards and letters," he said. "This is one phase of Christmas shopping that can be completed early, and it will help us a great deal in speeding up traffic at post office windows during December."

The postmaster recommends that Christmas cards be sent first-class mail where there is any possibility that the address may be incorrect or incomplete, since only envelopes bearing a 3-cent stamp have forwarding privileges.

Stressing the need for complete and accurate addresses, he pointed out that thousands of cards and packages are days late arriving every Christmas season, or end up in the dead-letter office, because of insufficient addresses.

Parcel post packages cannot be accepted unless they are stoutly wrapped, he said. "This means heavy cord, sturdy outer paper, and heavy cardboard inside. Packages must not exceed 70 pounds in weight and are limited in size to 100 inches in length and girth combined."

Christmas cards can be handled more readily if they are tied in bundles, with all the envelopes facing the same way and the stamps in the same corner. Cards for out-of-town and for local delivery should be in separate bundles.

UNION SERVICE OF MOSS POINT CHURCHES

The fifth Sunday union service of the churches of Moss Point will be held at the Methodist church in that city, Nov. 30.

The Rev. Walter Bader, who has recently come to occupy the pastorate of the Presbyterian church will deliver the sermon.

The service will take place at 7:30 p. m.

Little Girl Hurt By Truck Monday On Telephone Road

Mary Dean Penn, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Penn, was slightly injured Monday about 1:40 p. m. by a truck driven by Miss Emily Fountain of Route 1, Pascagoula. Chief of Police J. E. Shirley announced.

The accident occurred on Telephone Road at Railroad street when the child attempted to cross Telephone Road. Miss Fountain swerved her truck to the shoulder of the road in an attempt to miss the child. Chief Shirley said, but the little girl ran into the right front fender. She suffered minor injuries to her right thigh, lacerations of the left leg and scratches of the nose. She was carried to Jackson County hospital where she was treated and allowed to return home.

Yard To Launch 100th Vessel During December

The Ingalls yard will celebrate its 100th launching at an early date when the S. S. Laude Venezuela, 12th in a series of ships for Brazil, slides into the water. The date for the ceremony has tentatively been set for sometime in December, according to officials. Details as to the name of the sponsor and other matters have not been made public but it is believed the sponsor will be a prominent woman in the state or country.

The first launching took place at the Ingalls yard June 8, 1940, with the christening of the Exchequer built for the American export lines. The C-3 type vessel was taken over by the U. S. Navy almost immediately after the launching, however, and was converted into a seaplane tender and re-named the Pocumoke.

Since that time there have been constructed at the yard vessels of the C-3 type including troop ships, attack transports and luxury liners, four airplane carriers for Great Britain and three special design Navy ships.

Burial Of Infant Son Of Mr. And Mrs. Henry Overstreet

Henry Dale Overstreet, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Overstreet of Vancleave, died in the Biloxi hospital on Tuesday, November 25.

The five-day-old baby was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Overstreet of Vancleave. He is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Overstreet of Vancleave.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Magnolia Baptist church with the Rev. Spiers of Ocean Springs conducting the services. The interment was in the Magnolia cemetery.

The boys of the Pascagoula Junior Hi School will be shown in the next few weeks that the "policeman is really their fun."

J. A. Witchen, special officer who directs traffic at the school, said this week that he planned on taking all of the boys in the school on a fishing trip—one-third of the group at a time.

He planned to start this week with the football team and the other two groups on successive weeks.

Principal Rupert Purvis joined heartily in with Mr. Witchen's plan and the project is officially sponsored by the police department of Pascagoula. The boys will have an all day trip and a fine outing in the country, according to plans, but none will be allowed to carry rifles or guns for safety reasons.

BAPTISMS AT OLV CHURCH

On Sunday, November 16 the Rev. Gregory Johnson officiated at several baptisms at Our Lady of Victories church.

Among them was the baptism of William Herbert Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill H. Beach. His sponsors were Victor A. Krebs and Rita M. Krebs.

Another was Retha, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph H. Aricer of Gaptier. Her sponsors were Charles B. Martin, Jr. and Mrs. Francis Martin.

The apricot is a native of China but from early times was cultivated in Armenia.
